

A National Reconciliation Week Event

YOU ARE INVITED TO

MARRICKVILLE ABORIGINAL

INTERPRETIVE WALK

Time: 10.00am

Date: Saturday 30th May

Place: Steel Park in Marrickville
near the Cooks River

Speakers: Jennifer Newman (local Wiradjuri woman) and John Butcher (GCPC convenor)

The Gallipoli Centenary Peace Campaign is organising a National Reconciliation Week event on Saturday 30 May. This event will also mark the anniversary of the High Court Mabo decision on 3 June in 1992 which gave recognition to native title.

The walk along the river via Aboriginal Interpretive Sites will be led by Wiradjuri woman, Jennifer Newman. At 'Richardson's Lookout – Marrickville Peace Park', John Butcher, the convenor of the Gallipoli Centenary Peace Campaign, will speak about the Peace Park and its significance for National Reconciliation Week.

Contact: John Butcher –T: (02) 9559 3406 E: gcpc2015@gmail.com W: www.gcpc2015.org.au