

Anzac Day: An Opportunity to Reflect

Tuesday 25 April 2017 - 10.30am to 11.30am

Richardson's Lookout - Marrickville Peace Park

(cnr Richards Avenue & Holt Crescent in Marrickville 2204)

Join us to:

- Respect victims of war: those who died in battle, those who were maimed physically and psychologically, along with those who suffered on the home front during WW1 and in other wars.
- Acknowledge those who opposed conscription and war in the past;
- Call for official recognition of the Frontier Wars and the impact they had on indigenous dispossession.
- Reflect on how to build a culture of peace, an independent foreign policy at home and a commitment to collective security internationally.

Speakers:

- John Butcher (GCPC Convener).
- Jennifer Newman (Wiradjuri woman and Vice-President of the Cooks River Valley Association) will provide an Acknowledgement of Country and speak about the Frontier Wars.
- Other contributions from participants welcome.

Event hosted by Gallipoli Centenary Peace Campaign (GCPC)

Inquiries: John (02) 9559 3406 & Jon 0418 864 907.

Email • Facebook • Website

Anzac Day: An Opportunity to Reflect

Tuesday 25 April 2017 - 10.30am to 11.30am

Richardson's Lookout - Marrickville Peace Park

(cnr Richards Avenue & Holt Crescent in Marrickville 2204)

Join us to:

- Respect victims of war: those who died in battle, those who were maimed physically and psychologically, along with those who suffered on the home front during WW1 and in other wars.
- Acknowledge those who opposed conscription and war in the past;
- Call for official recognition of the Frontier Wars and the impact they had on indigenous dispossession.
- Reflect on how to build a culture of peace, an independent foreign policy at home and a commitment to collective security internationally.

Speakers:

- John Butcher (GCPC Convener).
- Jennifer Newman (Wiradjuri woman and Vice-President of the Cooks River Valley Association) will provide an Acknowledgement of Country and speak about the Frontier Wars.
- Other contributions from participants welcome.

Event hosted by Gallipoli Centenary Peace Campaign (GCPC)

Inquiries: John (02) 9559 3406 & Jon 0418 864 907.

Email • Facebook • Website